

Memories from Hadlyme

A Personal History of the East Haddam, Connecticut, Area

by Marya Repko

- ◆ Brief History from 1600s through 1900s.
- ◆ Nathan Hale-Ray School, Moodus Main Street.
- ◆ Goodspeed Opera House, Riverside Inn, the Bridge.
- ◆ Hadlyme Church, Gillette Castle, Ferry, Village Hall.
- ◆ Growing up in the Rural Connecticut Valley in the 1950s.

This is a delightful memoir of concise historical fact intermingled with the author's recollections. The book contains charming sketches, interesting old photos, and a large list of Further Reading for those who wish to dig deeper into our past. It will appeal to new and old local residents as well as to visitors.

Marya Repko grew up in Hadlyme, CT, and attended local schools before graduating from Hollins College in Roanoke, VA. She lived most of her adult life in Europe as a software engineer until she retired to Everglades City, FL, where her first book A Brief History of the Everglades City Area has sold thousands of copies. Other brief historical studies of Sanibel Island, Marjory Stoneman Douglas, Deaconess Harriet Bedell, and the Fakahatchee have been well-received, as have the children's versions of the Everglades and Sanibel books. Marya is Secretary of the Everglades Society for Historic Preservation.
